valuation, as Capt. Hughes says that heretofore he had only four horses for the entire company. He said the company was now in better shape to cope with the situation than ever before. C. R. Moore, one of the engineers, will be in charge of the Yaleta camp, as Capt. Hughes will be here most of the time.

MEXICO MAY TAX OIL LANDS TO FIGHT STANDARD
Mexico City, Mexico, Nov. 18.—All concessions granted during the Diaz regime for the development of oil lands, will be rendered practically valueless if congress passes a bill introduced to tax these lands along the same lines as properties now are taxed. The concessions now held by Lord Cowdray and his associates to not provide for the payment of any considerable tax but enables them to prevent others from developing the properties. The author of the bill, Jose Lazano, frankly declared on the floor of the house that his measure was intended to destroy the power of the Pearson syndicate and the Standard Oil company.

GATLING GUNS ARE SENT TO MONTEREY
Monterey, Mex., Nov. 18.—Much interest is manifested here in the shipment of Gatling guns, said to have left Mexico City and billed to Gen. Geronimo Trevino, of the third military zone, in this city. It is said that all sorts of arms and ammunitions are being shipped here and to Saltillo for the prevention of any uprising.

GEN. DUNCAN IS ORDERED TO WATCH FOR REVOLT TACTICS
Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—Brigadier General Joseph W. Duncan, commanding the department of Texas, has been ordered to keep a close watch for any violation of the neutrality laws and to report immediately to the war department anything approaching revolutionary tactics.

cavalry, 2nd infantry and a battalion of field artillery; the 2nd infantry is along the Rio Grande, near El Paso, and the fourth cavalry is at El Paso, and two troops of the 11th cavalry are at Fort Huachuca.

MEXICAN CAVALRY SENT TO GUARD BORDER POINTS
Eagle Pass, Tex., Nov. 18.—Two troops of Mexican cavalry left Piedras Negras across the Rio Grande from here last night, one of 80 men for Los Vagos, opposite Del Rio, Tex., and another of 50 for Texas, a small village about 50 miles south of this place. These precautions were taken to prevent any outbreaking. It was reported that a fight near Tampas resulted in the killing of several on both sides. At Piedras Negras there was a rumor that Gen. Reyes was expected to cross the border, but no foundation for it could be found here.

SAYS MEXICANS BADLY TREATED BY TEXAS PEOPLE
Austin, Tex., Nov. 18.—That Mexico in Texas are mistreated, was charged in a complaint personally made to governor Colquhoun by consul Manuel Estaya. Senor Estaya also reported that the more radical of his people were urging their fellows to purchase arms and resent the alleged mistreatment. The consul urged that governor Colquhoun order an investigation. Senor Estaya's complaint was not sufficiently specific, the governor explained, to warrant immediate action.

STRIKE HAS SPREAD TO INCLUDE GOMEZ PALACIO
Torreon, Mexico, Nov. 18.—A general strike has been inaugurated in Gomez Palacio, a town within a few minutes' ride of Torreon, including those in Gomez Palacio and those on many haciendas, the number of men involved in the general strike centering in Torreon, is approximately 10,000.

A few men have returned to work under guard and irregular street car service has been resumed, soldiers riding on every car, but the prospect of an immediate settlement seems small.

ALLEGED MAGONISTA PLOT AT DOUGLAS FRUSTRATED
Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 18.—An alleged Magonista plot to cross the Mexican border with a force of 100 men who were said to be planning to unite with others coming up from Nacozari, Mexico, was frustrated at the last minute last night by special agents of Mexican consul Questa, aided by officers of the United States.

BEGIN WORK ON EIGHT VENIRE

Two of the Thirty-eight in Court Are Retained After Examinations.

SIX ARE TOLD TO RETURN ON MONDAY

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 18.—Thirty-eight out of 40 men in the eighth venire in the McNamara murder trial appeared in court today in answer to summons. Two of the 38 remained after preliminary examinations; six men were told to return Monday and 30 presented excuses held valid by Judge Walter Bordwell.

J. H. Marshall was accepted by the state as to cause and Fred De J. Meyer was under examination when court adjourned until Monday.

Feature of the Day.
A feature of the day Friday was evidence that John J. McNamara is taking a hand in the selection of the jurors who are to try his brother, James R. McNamara, for the alleged murder of Charles J. Hagerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times explosion year ago.

From his cell in the county jail, where he is held pending trial on joint indictment with his brother, John J. McNamara sent word that C. A. Heath, being of English birth, would not be suitable, in his opinion, to try an Irishman, and Heath was removed by peremptory challenge.

The two new jurors are: J. R. Saxton, ranchman and real estate dealer from Alhambra, a suburb. William Andre, a carpenter and formerly a union man. He does not now belong to a union.

The three jurors already chosen were: Robert Bain, carpenter. F. D. Green, orange grower. Byron Lisk, mill owner.

Within a few moments after the new jurors were sworn in, the seventh venire was exhausted and a new one of 40 men was drawn. This makes 405 men drawn for service in connection with the case. Of this number about one-third have been examined, the others being chosen from the county or else excused for personal reasons by Judge Bordwell in preliminary examination. The seventh venire came into court only Thursday afternoon.

Four peremptory challenges by the defense and three by the state trimmed the full jury box down to five men when court opened.

The state let off by excusing A. Gribbling, a retired walnut grower and harnessmaker, who once had difficulty with the Times management over a subscription premium. It also excused Willett Brunner, a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Clark McLean, a Pasadena banker, who said he considered "a knock in the Times as a boost," and expressed other unfavorable opinions concerning that journal.

The defense, which alternated its challenges with the state, excused Brewster C. Kenyon, a capitalist; T. H. Elliott, a gardener; C. A. Heath, the English farmer, and Jacob Leimberg, Elliott and Lansing were supposed by the defense to have expressed the belief that McNamara was guilty and should be hanged.
